ORDER ON JOINT MOTIONS

On August 2, 2022, Enforcement Counsel and Respondents Claudia Russ Anderson, David Julian, and Paul McLinko (collectively “the Parties”) jointly moved for (1) an order granting the parties leave to file electronically and permitting electronic service, (2) an order granting the parties leave to file a joint motion for an order extending the time to file exceptions, and (3) an order extending by 30 days the 30-day deadline to time to file exceptions. (“Joint Motions”). On August 22, 2022, the Comptroller issued an Order holding the Joint Motions in abeyance until the Administrative Judge issued his recommended decision and the record is transmitted to the Comptroller for decision. On December 5, 2022, the Administrative Judge issued his recommended decisions in this matter and thus, the Joint Motions are now ripe for decision.

Upon consideration, and good cause appearing, the Parties’ Joint Motions are hereby GRANTED. All future filings with the Comptroller shall be filed and served electronically by email to the Hearing Clerk at hearingclerk@occ.treas.gov. Moreover, the 30-day deadline imposed by 12 C.F.R. § 19.39(a) to file written exceptions, and any supporting briefs, shall be extended 30 days to February 3, 2023. Any motions for additional time should be filed promptly.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
